Reflections on Life by Johnny Lewis, III, BASIC Group Leader

Have you thought about what it takes for us to mature spiritually? From my personal experience, spiritual growth is a continuous work in progress. Because we are now partakers of God's divine nature, God has provided us with everything that we need to develop spiritually, escape the corruption of this world, resist yielding to the flesh, and prevent falling back into our sinful patterns. For God's calling on our lives to work out according to His plan, we must maintain a steadfast faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, willingly and completely submit to the biblical teaching of God's Holy Word and acquire the proper discernment of it by the Holy Spirit. In 2 Peter 1:3, the Apostle Peter says, “Seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.” (NASB). Remember that living a truly abundant life is based on our knowledge of Jesus and a personal relationship with Him.

Blessed
 assurance,
 Jesus is mine

JESUS & WOMEN LADIES BIBLE STUDY IN THE FELLOWSHIP HALL

LED BY SHELLY JONES Imagine walking the dusty roads of Galilee with Jesus of Nazareth — braving jostling crowds just to touch the edge of His cloak and hear Him say, "Take heart, daughter, your faith has healed you." Those words, once meant to comfort a hurting woman's soul thousands of years ago, were also meant for you.

Who's Who & Where's Where

JOASH:

Joash was just a one-year-old baby when his grandmother, Athaliah, ordered him executed. Her son, King Ahazia of Judah, had just been murdered, and she wanted to become queen. So she ordered the entire royal family killed. Only Joash survived. He was spirited away by an aunt to the Jerusalem temple. Six years later, a priest, Jehoiada, orchestrated a coup. The queen was executed and seven-year old Joash became king.
