"One man's faith ignited a revolution."

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25TH | 6PM

Bring a comfy chair and snacks to share!
Pizza & Drinks will be provided.

Since Adam & Eve chose to disobey God, all creation has been subjected to suffering. As believers and followers of Jesus Christ, we will experience trials, hurts, rejection, disappointments, health problems, persecution in some places, and so on. Nevertheless, the Apostle Paul lets us know in Romans 8:18 that our present sufferings “are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us.” No matter how intense our suffering is now, it will seem so insignificant in comparison to what God has planned for us in our eternal home with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. So, let’s deal with the here and now but keep our focus on the eternal joy that is coming!

Hallelujah

BIBLE SIGNS & SYMBOLS

ROME — PART 1

By the time of the New Testament, the Roman Empire had conquered much of the world and had established order, which actually became a perfect environment in which the gospel of Jesus Christ could spread like wildfire. A glimpse of the pervasive power of Rome can be seen in the opening chapters of Luke's Gospel:
“At that time the Emperor Augustus ordered census of the Roman Empire...All the people went to register in the cities where their ancestors had lived. (Luke 2:1-3)”
God used Rome to arrange for the movement of people that would ensure that His Son would be born in Bethlehem. The empire assumed the role of a powerful force behind the scenes that often participated in what God wanted to accomplish.
